My fellow Jew
Crazy 'bout

From Alaska to Kathmandu

Thinkin' About Thankin'

COMPOSED AND WRITTEN BY: NOCHUM LEVITAN
ADDITIONAL LYRICS BY: RABBI MOTTEL FRIEDMAN
ARRANGED BY: DONI GROSS
MIXED BY: DONI GROSS

עַל כָּל נְשִׁימָה וְנְשִׁימָה תְּהַלֵּל קָה
(עפ"י ילקוט שמעוני תהילים ק"נ)

It's time that we start thinkin' about thankin'
Thinkin' about thankin' You Hashem
From the big things to the little
And the endless love in middle
We give thanks to You again and again
All Your blessing's so amazing so we're thankin' and we're praisin'
No matter where and no matter when
If we would start thinkin' about thankin'
We would start and never end

*FINAL CHORUS:

If we start contemplating about appreciating
We would start but never end
Thank You Hashem

THE ONLY LABEL A JEW SHOULD ACCEPT FOR HIMSELF IS "UNDER-CONSTRUCTIONIST." WE ARE ALL LITTLE WORKS IN PROGRESS, LITTLE MELODIES IN THE MAKING, AND LITTLE BY LITTLE WE WILL GET THERE, BECAUSE ONCE WE START, WE NEVER END!
